

#4

JULY 24-30, 2004
 Calvin College
 Grand Rapids, Michigan

JUNE 24, 2004

Theme: Our Calling in Christ
Speaker: Pastor Ted Donnelly from Northern Ireland
Conference Psalm: PSALM 106A

IMPORTANT NOTE: Registration at the conference will not begin until 4:00 P.M. on Saturday, July 24. If you are already paid in full, you will be able to go directly to your room after that time.

 The 2ND AND 3RD GRADERS will be going on a great expedition through the Australian outback ... a walk-about with Jesus, if you will! Consider dressing them appropriately: Khaki is cool for pants (long or short), and light-colored tee-shirts would be best. Hats will be supplied on the first day. Get ready for great fun, following our Lord Jesus!

 The college/career age students should bring a board game to share for Saturday evening!

 In order to be paid in full and have your room assignments back to you in time, please have checks in the mail to the registrar post-marked no later than July 9. After that date, please bring your payment with you. If your congregation is covering some of the costs, you will not be paid in full until all monies are received, so please let your treasurer know of our deadline. Bruce & Kim Backensto, 3303 Seventh Avenue, Beaver Falls, PA 15010.

#4

JULY 24-30, 2004
 Calvin College
 Grand Rapids, Michigan

JUNE 24, 2004

Theme: Our Calling in Christ
Speaker: Pastor Ted Donnelly from Northern Ireland
Conference Psalm: PSALM 106A

IMPORTANT NOTE: Registration at the conference will not begin until 4:00 P.M. on Saturday, July 24. If you are already paid in full, you will be able to go directly to your room after that time.

 The 2ND AND 3RD GRADERS will be going on a great expedition through the Australian outback ... a walk-about with Jesus, if you will! Consider dressing them appropriately: Khaki is cool for pants (long or short), and light-colored tee-shirts would be best. Hats will be supplied on the first day. Get ready for great fun, following our Lord Jesus!

 The college/career age students should bring a board game to share for Saturday evening!

 In order to be paid in full and have your room assignments back to you in time, please have checks in the mail to the registrar post-marked no later than July 9. After that date, please bring your payment with you. If your congregation is covering some of the costs, you will not be paid in full until all monies are received, so please let your treasurer know of our deadline. Bruce & Kim Backensto, 3303 Seventh Avenue, Beaver Falls, PA 15010.

FOR THE FIRST GRADERS: Several items that the first graders should bring include: 1 white prewashed T-shirt; a ball glove for T-ball -- if they have one (please don't purchase one just for Calvin!).

Also, it would be great if the children brought a board or card game with them in case of inclement weather or to play outside in the shade if it is too hot during recreation time.

Kathleen Mohr
krmohr@geneva.edu

ARE YOU PART OF a church plant, RP mission field, or revitalization ministry? Is your congregation or mission station looking for energetic young adults to join your work?

College students and young adults—many of whom are choosing careers and relocating—will be gathering at the RP International Conference in a few months. We would like to invite your congregation to prepare a display promoting your congregation and community.

Suggested information for the display: jobs in your area, major employers, a short congregational biography, local demographics, congregational ministries, opportunities to serve in your congregation (i.e., assistance in youth ministries, psalm presenting, jail ministry, Sabbath school, etc.).

These displays will be up during the international conference in the college/young adult classroom, and we plan to have a designated time during which the tables would be staffed by someone from your congregation or mission field, if possible.

For more information contact: Ben & Anna Larson, (765) 420-0130, larson@myrealbox.com.

FOR THE FIRST GRADERS: Several items that the first graders should bring include: 1 white prewashed T-shirt; a ball glove for T-ball -- if they have one (please don't purchase one just for Calvin!).

Also, it would be great if the children brought a board or card game with them in case of inclement weather or to play outside in the shade if it is too hot during recreation time.

Kathleen Mohr
krmohr@geneva.edu

ARE YOU PART OF a church plant, RP mission field, or revitalization ministry? Is your congregation or mission station looking for energetic young adults to join your work?

College students and young adults—many of whom are choosing careers and relocating—will be gathering at the RP International Conference in a few months. We would like to invite your congregation to prepare a display promoting your congregation and community.

Suggested information for the display: jobs in your area, major employers, a short congregational biography, local demographics, congregational ministries, opportunities to serve in your congregation (i.e., assistance in youth ministries, psalm presenting, jail ministry, Sabbath school, etc.).

These displays will be up during the international conference in the college/young adult classroom, and we plan to have a designated time during which the tables would be staffed by someone from your congregation or mission field, if possible.

For more information contact: Ben & Anna Larson, (765) 420-0130, larson@myrealbox.com.